BOOK-PRICES CURRENT,

VOLUMES I. TO XIII.

Being a Record of the Prices at which Books have been sold at Auction during the years 1887 to 1899, with the Titles and Descriptions of the Books in full, the Catalogue Numbers, and the Names of the Purchasers.

Some of the earlier volumes are out of print and others are at a premium. Reports will be made by the publisher in answer to queries.

Opinions of the Press.

"'Book-Prices Current'—the Whitaker's Almanack of book-buyers and booksellers."—Illustrated London News.

"A very useful and admirably edited and printed publication."—Morning Post.

"To praise 'Book-Prices Current' is unnecessary; it has become indispensable to book collectors, and of vital interest to all who care for literature."—Globe.

"Brunet, indeed, so long the book-buyer's chief delight, must yield to 'Book-Prices Current.'"—Notes and Queries.

"It is beyond comparison the book-collector's cyclopædia. Its own earlier volumes, curiously enough, command very high prices."—Daily Chronicle.

"The practical utility to buyers and sellers of an authoritative annual work of reference like this requires no demonstration. . . . The knowledge and skill displayed in this compilation merit cordial recognition."—Standard.

"To all classes of bookmen, the issues of 'Book-Prices Current' may be fairly pronounced indispensable."—Literary World.

"It may be said without exaggeration that the annual volumes of Mr. Slater's admirable compilation are indispensable to such as desire to follow with any closeness the record of sales and the movements of the second-hand book market."—Times.

"Valuable to booksellers, and still more so to book-buyers. . . . This useful work has long established its position, and must have saved many a collector a bad bargain."—Athenæum.

"The work supplies a finely printed record which will be valued, not by the bookseller merely, but by the collector and librarian."—Daily Telegraph.

"The book collector's Bible."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"The record is extremely useful for buyers and collectors of books, and is a valuable index to current phases of book-collecting, and to fluctuations in the market."—Saturday Review.

INTRODUCTION.

THE season, just closed, can boast of no great sales like those of the Crawford, Makellar, Ashburnham, or Morris Libraries in our own time and many others which are matters of history, yet its record should not be neglected on that account, nor the experience which can be gathered from details allowed to pass unheeded. The fourteenth volume of BOOK-PRICES CURRENT is unique in one respect ; it covers a period coinciding with that devoted to a war of considerable magnitude which engrossed men's minds to the virtual exclusion of other things, important enough in themselves, no doubt, but relegated to the background for the time being by universal consent. It would, naturally enough, have been thought extremely injudicious for the owner of any large and very important Library to dispose of it by auction under such circumstances, since he would have no means of knowing whether provision for the sinews of war and the incidental demands made upon the pockets of all classes of society would not have the effect of lowering the prices of luxuries, among which may be numbered those rare and expensive books which are gradually, but surely, being absorbed by the great Public Libraries, and will soon be altogether unprocurable. It was this consideration, probably, that caused owners of valuable libraries to hold back, as it were, to a more favourable opportunity ; but whatever the reason, it is clear that the close of the year 1899 and the first few months of this were occupied, to a very great extent, in selling books of no great interest ; and it is also certain that the prices realised for such books were below the average. Still, the season, as a whole, has witnessed some very important sales, and it is worthy of note that no diminution whatever, but rather the contrary, took place with regard to the value of those high-class books for which there is and always has been strong competition.

The Tixall Sale, reported on p. 26 et seq., is a good example of the truth of these remarks. The Tixall Library was a very old one, having been formed originally by the first Lord Aston, Ambassador to Spain in the reign of James I. It was, however, added to by successive owners, and contained books of many kinds and various degrees of importance. Those among them which, at the present time, excite little interest, realised less than they would have done two or three years ago, but all the rest brought their utmost value. The important miscellaneous sale held by Messrs. Sotheby, on November 20th and five following days, is another proof, if any were needed, that first-rate books will always realise first-rate prices, no matter what the political outlook may be. Other sales to which special reference may be made comprise the Fielding—so called, though it consisted of a large number of books from various sources; the sale of the stock of Messrs. H. S. Nichols & Co., Ltd.; Colonel Francis Grant's fine collection of English classics, chiefly of the last century; a miscellaneous sale, held on May 21st last, which included the collection of works on card games, formed by the well-known "Cavendish," the third portion of the library of J. B. Inglis, a noted collector of the first half of the present century; and the Peel heirlooms, sold by Messrs. Robinson & Fisher, on June 12th and following days. These were the most noticeable sales of last season, and though the whole of them, if massed together, would not approach the importance of a single Ashburnham or Syston Park collection, they were, nevertheless, of very great interest, on no account to be overlooked in any history that may be written hereafter of the state of the English book-market during the 19th century, now fast drawing to its close.

It will be remembered that the last volume of BOOK-PRICES CURRENT contained a long array of original editions of the works of Kipling and Stevenson, and that many of these realised the most astonishing, not to say absurd, prices. No less than £135 was paid for "School Boy Lyrics;" while the little Davos-Platz brochures, though possessing no literary merit whatever—mere playthings, in fact—brought sums that could not possibly be defended except on sentimental grounds. One eminent critic seemed to imply that space was wasted in reporting the sale of trifles not worth house-room. Also might he have said that the persons who bought them wasted their money, which would be true enough, as it happens, since these and other trifles, after a period of artificial inflation, have had a most disastrous collapse, e. gr., "School Boy Lyrics" fell from £135 to £3 5s.; "Echoes, by Two Writers," from £29 to £18 10s.; "Quartette," from £10 5s. to £3 12s.; "The United Service College Chronicle," from £101 (19 numbers only) to £5 7s. 6d.; "Black Canyon," from £13 to £2 6s; the two leaves on light blue paper, known as "The Marguerite," Davos-Platz, 1882, from £4 to £2; and so on. This heavy fall in prices is attributable to several causes, not one of which can fairly be debited to the depression caused by the South African difficulty. When a modern, or comparatively modern, book is believed to be unique, or, at any rate, extremely scarce, it will invariably bring a high price, provided it be written by an author of great repute. The fact of the sale is at once reported in the newspapers and elsewhere, and this results in a general search in likely quarters and the discovery of other copies hitherto unsuspected. The price then declines as a matter of course, just as it did in the case of Mr. Swinburne's "A Song of Italy," which almost entirely lost its value when a large "remainder" was accidentally discovered and thrown on the market. The fall in the value of the minor productions of Kipling and Stevenson must be attributed partly to enterprise, stimulated by publicity and rewarded by discovery, and partly also to the decrees of fashion, which change continually.

The risk of fresh copies being discovered at any moment is indeed the bane of collectors of modern works; and perhaps this is why the precaution of putting on record the precise number of copies issued is often taken, as in the case of books printed at the Kelmscott and Vale Presses. The actual number of existing copies of every work printed at these presses is well known, and in the case of the Kelmscott Press, at any rate, no more can be printed, as all the wood blocks were deposited at the British Museum shortly after the death of Mr. Morris, with the stipulation that they were not to be reproduced or printed from for the space of a hundred years. The position occupied by these books is therefore ascertained beyond doubt, and, as is well known, they have increased enormously in value of late years. During the last six or eight months, however, the advance has been less marked, though "The Glittering Plain," 1891, Keats' and Shelley's Poems, and Chaucer's Works show a substantial increase in price. A note (page 329) explains the position held by the Vale Press. The books from this source are rapidly rising in value, and will probably be very difficult to procure in the future at anything approaching their present prices. A small number of copies only are printed, and the books as a whole contain all the features which have made those from the Kelmscott Press such desirable acquisitions.

Every volume of BOOK-PRICES CURRENT hitherto published has contained some special features which are to be found in no other. It might be thought that the same books, or classes of books, would be in continual evidence, but this is very far from being the case. It is found by experience that works of a certain class will suddenly drop out of sight for the time being, while others, hitherto only very sparsely represented, will take their place in large numbers. This is due to the modern tendency to specialise. The days of large composite libraries appear to be over, and collectors look no longer on their own shelves for an answer to every question under the sun. The present volume of BOOK-PRICES CURRENT contains an unusual number of early printed books with woodcuts, English classics of the 18th century, works of the old dramatists, and books bearing autograph inscriptions—presentation copies, in fact, for which a very wide demand is discernible. Given a good book by a well-known and highly-esteemed author, living or dead, and its normal value will in many cases be doubled or trebled, at least, if only it contain a few lines in his handwriting. Such exceptional copies always excited interest, but it is only recently that the demand for them has become so general. The degree of estimation in which an author is held can be very accurately gauged by reference to the value put upon presentation copies of the books he has written. There is evidently a wonderful difference between a public criticism that all may read for a trifle and a private opinion that has to be paid for substantially by the holder of it ; though which of the two represents the correct view, so far as contemporary authors are concerned, time alone will be able to show.

Referring once more to the influence exercised by the war on the sale of books, it may be stated that, while nothing adverse happened during the months of October and November, the sales held during the two following months were most prejudicially affected. During this latter period, reports of "disasters" and "untoward incidents" were expected with great confidence, and not only were important collections conspicuous by their absence, but the prices realised for those which came into the market were much below the average. In fact, the average of the whole season was materially reduced by reason of the scare in December and January ; the recovery that subsequently took place, especially during June and July, being unable to save the situation. The average sum realised per lot of books sold during the last season amounts to no more than £2 6s. 2d. This is greater than that of many past years, but less than the past three, as the following analysis discloses :—

[NOVEMBER 20TH, AND FIVE FOLLOWING DAYS, 1899.]

SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE.

A SELECTION FROM THE LIBRARY OF LORD RENDLESHAM.
A LARGE COLLECTION FROM VARIOUS SOURCES.

(No. of Lots, 1611 ; amount realised, £8,405 5s. 6d.

- 776 Bartoli (P. S.) Recueil de Peintures Antiques trouvées à Rome, imitées fidèlement, pour les Couleurs et le Trait, seconde édition, 54 coloured plates, 2 vol. in 1, old morocco gilt, g. e., Paris, Didot, 1783, imperial folio (6) Quaritch, £9 5s.
- 777 Basan (Fr.) Œuvre : Recueil de Cent (Quatre Cent) Estampes de Sujets Agréable, et Paysages, gravés d'après les meilleurs Maîtres de Pays-Bas et de l'Ecole Française par François Basan, ou sous sa Direction, 400 engravings, original impressions, 4 vol., half russia, Paris, chez l'auteur, 1762, etc., atlas folio (8) Quaritch, £38
[This is only part of the work. There should be 6 vol., atlas folio, with 650 plates, worth about £50 or more with unlettered proof plates.—ED.]
- 778 Boyer d'Aguilles (M.) Recueil d'Estampes d'après les Tableaux des Peintres les plus célèbres d'Italie, des Pays-Bas, et de France, qui sont dans le Cabinet de M. Boyer d'Aguilles, gravées par J. Cœlemans d'Anvers, 118 plates, early impressions, old calf, P. J. Mariette, 1744, atlas folio (9) Roche, £2 14s.
[The number of plates is given in the catalogue as 118, but the usual list consists of fleuron on title and 103 plates, containing 126 subjects by Cœlemans, after Rigaud, S. Bourdon, Téniers, Duval, Millet, and a large number of other painters. This series had already been issued (in 1709) with 7 extra plates by Boyer, 27 mezzotints by Barras (25 of which were replaced by Cœlemans, and appear in the issue of 1744 above named), and an extra frontispiece.—ED.]
- 779 Buchoz (P. J.) Les Dons Merveilleux et diversement colories de la Nature dans le Regne Vegetal ; ou Collection de Plantes precieusement coloriées, 200 coloured plates, 2 vol., old French morocco, gilt floreate backs, line sides, g. e. (Derome), Paris, chez l'Auteur, s. d.—Herbier Colorié de l'Amérique, représentant les Plantes les plus rares et les plus curieuses, 100 coloured plates, old French morocco, gilt floreate back, line sides, g. e. (Derome), ib., 1783, together 2 vol., folio (10, 11) Quaritch, £6 2s. 6d.
- 780 Darly (M.) Comic Prints of Characters, Caricatures, Macaronics, etc., dedicated to D. Garrick, Esq., 276 humorous subjects on 119 plates (2 folding ones torn), original impressions, half bound, Mary Darly, 1776, folio (17) Leon, £4

- 781 Grose (Fr.) Military Antiquities of the British Army, first edition, numerous plates, 2 vol., morocco gilt, g. e., S. Hooper, 1786, 4to. (3) Dobell, £2 2s.

- 782 Hodges (Wm.) Select Views in India drawn on the Spot in 1780-83, text in English and French, 48 large coloured views, green morocco extra, g. e., J. Edwards, 1786, atlas folio (24) Maggs, £2 2s.

[There should be 50 plates, all in aquatint. Some copies have the plates uncoloured, while in others they are in proof state.—ED.]

- 783 Holbein (Hans). Œuvre, ou Recueil de Gravures, d'après ses plus beaux Ouvrages, avec des Explications et sa Vie par Chr. Mechel, 4 parts, comprising the Dance of Death, Swiss Costumes, The Passion of Our Lord, and Portraits of Eminent Persons, portrait and 45 plates 4to., inlaid in folio paper, and bound in old morocco gilt (a large plate of "the Letter Writer" after Holbein by A. Walker inserted), Basle, 1870, atlas folio (25) Quaritch, £2 6s.

- 784 Houbraken and Vertue. Heads of Illustrious Persons of Great Britain, with their Lives and Characters by T. Birch, LARGE PAPER, 108 portraits by Houbraken and Vertue, brilliant impressions, J. and P. Knapton, 1743-51—Kit-Cat Club (The). Done from the Original Paintings by Sir Godfrey Kneller by Mr. Faber, mezzo. title, dedication and 48 mezzotint portraits, original impressions, margins cut down and mounted, Tonson, 1735, in 2 vol., old russa, g. e. (broken), imperial folio (26) Maggs, £26 10s.

[Only 200 large paper copies were printed of Houbraken and Vertue's "Heads of Illustrious Persons." The number of portraits given above is correct, but the work is usually found in 2 vol., and was so issued, the first appearing in 1743 with 80 plates, and the second in 1751 with 28. The series of portraits of members of the Kit-Cat Club, 48 in number, is of much greater importance, and justifies the high price realised for the lot as a whole. Good sets are worth from £20 to £25, and more when on large paper.—ED.]

- 785 Houghton Gallery. A Set of Prints engraved after the most Capital Paintings in the Collection of the Empress of Russia, lately in the Possession of the Earl of Orford, at Houghton in Norfolk, portraits of the Empress Catherine and Sir R. Walpole, vignettes on titles, 28 plans, etc., and 130 engravings, some mezzotints, original impressions (plate 8 cut out, 1 loose, several mounted, with all faults), 2 vol., old English morocco gilt, Boydell, 1778, atlas folio (27)

Leon, £31

[Contains portraits in mezzotint of Catherine of Russia and Sir Robert Walpole, vignette on each title, vignette at the head of the Dedication, 28 plans, elevations, etc., on 19

leaves, and 129 mezzotint portraits and plates on 107 leaves. There is a list of the prints in each volume, each list consisting of 5 pages.—ED.]

- 786 Le Brun (Chas.) La Grande Galerie de Versailles, et les deux Salons qui l'accompagnent, dessinés par J. B. Massé et gravés sous les yeux par les meilleurs Maîtres du Temps, 56 engravings on 52 plates, and portrait of Massé after L. Tocqué by J. G. Wille, original impressions, half bound (broken), Paris, Impr. Roy., 1752, atlas folio (30)

Leighton, £2 12s.

[Though not specifically mentioned in the above description, there is also a portrait of Le Brun by Edelinck, after de Largillière. There are only 10 leaves of text. The large paper copies have 51 plates in proof, the one entitled "La Franche-Comté réunie à la France" not existing in proof state. Further, the number of plates in the large paper copies does not tally with those in copies on the ordinary paper, the former having 3 medals, while the latter contains only 2 medals on a leaf, and the 2 plates of the ceilings are not folded in the large paper issue. See Lewine's "Bibliography of Eighteenth Century Art and Illustrated Books," 1898.—ED.]

- 787 Major (Thos.) Collections of Prints engraved from the finest Paintings of the Greatest Masters, engraved by Thos. Major, ornamental title and 58 large and small prints, original impressions, half bound (broken), 1756, atlas folio (32)

Maggs, £2 8s.

- 788 Merian (Maria S.) De Generatione et Metamorphosibus Insectorum Surinamensium, frontispiece and 72 engravings, coloured, old morocco, g. e., Amst., Jo. Oosterwijk, 1719, imperial folio (33)

Quaritch, £2 8s.

- 789 Raphael. Loggie nel Vaticano, title and 41 large coloured plates by Volpato and Ottaviani, original impressions (no preface), inserted in 2 vol., russia (broken), 1747, etc., elephant folio (36)

Ripley, £100

[These plates were published at different times in separate form. What is generally known as the "Loggie nel Vaticano" was issued in 4 parts, Roma, 1772-89, containing 92 plates in three series of 14, 13 and 12 each, with the general view, plan of the gallery on three sheets, the two plates of the doors marked A and B, and the fourth part known as "Raphael's Bible."—ED.]

- 790 Recueil d'Estampes d'après les plus beaux Tableaux, etc., qui sont en France dans le Cabinet du Roy, du Duc d'Orléans, etc. (Cabinet Crozat), avec une description Historique de chaque Tableau, 182 engravings, original impressions, 2 vol., old calf, Paris, Imp. Royale, 1729, atlas folio (38)

Quaritch, £7 2s. 6d.

[The second volume is dated 1742. The number of plates varies, some copies having only 178, not including the head-

- piece by Hortemels, after Van Loo. A reprint appeared at Paris in 1763. It sells for about £3 3s.—ED.]
- 791 Rogers (Chas.) Collections of Prints in Imitation of Original Drawings with Lives and Notes, 112 engravings in tints by Bartolozzi and others, 2 vol., half russia, uncut, 1778, imperial folio (39) E. Parsons, £2 2s.
- 792 Strange (Sir Robert). Collection of Prints, engraved after Pictures by the most celebrated Painters in Italy, France and England, 40 large engravings, original impressions (wanted portrait, with all faults), in a vol., russia (broken), 1753, etc., imperial atlas folio (42) Sotheman, £6 6s.
[This copy was very far from being complete. There should be a portrait and 49 plates.—ED.]
- 793 Voyage Pittoresque de La France. Tome X. Departement de l'Oise, 133 large and small views, half bound, Paris, Lamy, 1792, imperial folio (44) Geoffrey, £2 8s.
- 794 Watteau (Antoine). L'Euvre, Gravées d'après ses Tableaux et Desseins Originaux tirez du Cabinet du Roy et de Plus Curieux de l'Europe, par les soins de M. de Jullienne, Fixé a Cent exemplaires des Premières Epreuves imprimé sur GRAND PAPIER, 342 engravings, original impressions (many mounted, some plain margins wormed, wanted engraved leaf for "l'Art et la Nature," sold with all faults), 2 vol., old calf, s. d., atlas folio (45) Quaritch, £100
- 795 Watteau (Antoine). Figures de Different Caractères, de Pay-sages et d'Etudes dessinées d'après Nature, engraved title, portrait, and 3 leaves of letterpress only, and 350 subjects engraved by Boucher and others, original impressions, 2 ovals of "Evening Amusement" and "Morning Amusement" inserted at end, 2 vol. in 1, apparently wanted 4 of the preliminary leaves (sold not subject to return), old calf, Paris, s. d., folio (46) Quaritch, £80
[Should be 10 preliminary leaves of letterpress, but the number of plates as given is correct. The formation of the collection was due to the enterprise of Jean de Jullienne, pupil and friend of Watteau, who is mentioned in No. 794 supra.—ED.]
- 796 Wouwermans (Ph). Œuvres de Ph. Wouwermans Hollandois gravees d'après ses Meilleurs Tableaux qui sont dans le Cabinets de Paris et ailleurs par J. Moyreau, engraved title and plates numbered 1-89, after which come (unnumbered) "Halte Espagnole," "Le Chasseur Fortuné," and "Rendez-vous de Chasse," after C. Van Falens, followed by "Halte d'Officiers" after Wouwermans, a different "Rendezvous de Chasse," and "Halte de Chasseurs" after Van Falens, and 4 other prints after Wouwermans, all original impressions (5 mounted and portrait wanted, with all faults), in a vol., old morocco, Paris, 1737, atlas folio (47) J. Bumpus, £10
[The plates were published separately at intervals, and some copies contain more than others. The total number consists of portrait and 100 plates. Some, as well as the portrait, s. d., were missing in this instance.—ED.]

(β) *A Collection of Books relating to Gardening,

- [A rare volume, compiled, it is thought, by Sir Francis Bacon. Apart from the value it may have on that account, the interest it bears in connection with Shakespeare's Plays may be observed in the following extract, which is of great importance:—"That the afternoone before the Rebellion, Merricke, with a great company of others, that afterwards were all in the Action, had procured to be played before them, the Play of deposing King Richard the Second. Neither was it casual, but a Play bespoken by Merricke. And not so onely, but when it was told him by one of the Players, that the Play was olde, and they should have losse in playing it, because fewe would come to it: there was fourty shillings extraordinary given to play it and so there-upon playd it was. So earnest Hee was to satisfie his eyes with the sight of that Tragedie, which he thought soone after his Lord should bring from the Stage to the State, but that God turned it upon their owne heads."—Catalogue.]

- 954 Byron (Lord). English Bards and Scotch Reviewers, fourth edition (but really a fifth edition), morocco extra, doublé with broad borders, the centre lined with white vellum, vellum fly-leaves, g. e., by De Coverley, J. Boswell's copy, with his autograph "James Boswell, 1813," probably unique, 1811 (154) Maggs, £17

[This edition was printed, but before publication the whole impression was destroyed by Lord Byron. At page 81 is a satirical note respecting Sir W. Gell not in the usual copies bearing fourth edition on title. This copy was purchased by Mr. Heber in Boswell's sale, and afterwards sold in the Crampon sale for £29.—Catalogue. See BOOK-PRICES CURRENT, vol. x., No. 4239. The dates of the different editions of this poem are extremely confusing. It is probable that the second appeared in 1809, the fourth in 1810, and the fifth in 1811 or 1812. There are, however, so many spurious editions that dates are, in many instances, unreliable. According to Slater's "Early Editions," 1894, it was the fifth edition of 1812 that was suppressed and destroyed with the exception of one copy. If so, that mentioned above cannot be the one referred to, as it was dated 1811.—ED.]

- 955 Cahier (P. C.) Nouveaux Mélanges d'Archéologie, d'Histoire et de Littérature sur le Moyen Age; Ivoires, Miniatures, Emaux, Décorations d'Eglises, Bibliothèques, nombreuses illustrations, 3 vol., uncut, Paris, 1875-77 (334) Slater, £1 12s.

- 998 Dickens (Chas.) "Holiday Romance by Charles Dickens, in four parts," original autograph manuscript, very closely written in a small hand, with many erasures and alterations, 30 full pages, post 8vo., blue wove paper in blue ink, on one side of the page only, circa 1865 (444) Tregaskis, £105
[This interesting manuscript of the great writer was one of two papers written for first publication in America, the other being "George Silverman's Explanation." It was sent to Messrs. Ticknor, Fields and Co., of Boston, to the care of George Dolby, who was Dickens's agent for his American Readings, and has, or had, the original blue envelope with direction and autograph, "Charles Dickens." In Forster's Life the MS. is referred to as follows: "Dolby sails for America on Saturday the 3rd of August (1866). He will take out my MS. for the Children's Magazine. I hope it is droll and very childlike, though the joke is a grown-up one besides." The Allusion is to his pleasant Holiday Romance which he had written for Mr. Fields.—Catalogue.]
- 999 Dickens (C.) Posthumous Papers of the Pickwick Club, first edition, illustrations by Seymour and Browne, complete in 20 (19) original numbers, some wrappers wanting, Chapman and Hall, 1837, 8vo. (446) Sotheran, £3 12s.
- 1000 Dickens (C.) Oliver Twist, with etchings by George Cruikshank, first issue of the first edition, with the suppressed plate, and the substituted one loosely inserted, 3 vol., original cloth, uncut, 1838, 8vo. (447) Maggs, £3 18s.

 ["We have rescued from our columns . . . some literary trifles, in the hope that, like flies in amber, a few may be found still to retain an interest . . . for certain saving clauses: First, that many kind friends have desired me to have it done; second, that, unlike resurrection pie at school, this is no compulsory dish, for those that like it not may leave it alone. . . . Except for expansion into columns of more seemly width, and some slight supervision of late-discovered misprints, these are the same articles printed again from the same type as those which, I trust, in the "Civil and Military Gazette," gave their sympathetic readers some excuse for smiles; . . . and speaking on behalf of "Smith," "The Reveller," "Elianus," "Centurion," "The Subaltern," "Outis," and others—and still concealing my own identity among those pseudonyms—I hope that in this modest intention we are not to be disappointed."—Extract from title and preface.]

"My Dear Sir,

It would (be) doing high injustice to this place not to acknowledge that my rheumatisms have derived great benefits from it already ; but, alas, my loss of appetite still continues. I shall not need your kind offer this week, and I return to town the beginning of next week, it not being a tide week. I am detaining a man in a burning hurry. So God bless you. Robert Burns.

The Brow, Wednesday Morning, July 16, 1796."

Dressé et dessiné, les plans qui l'accompagnent, sur ses Memoires par le sieur Hanicle Ingenieur ordinaire du Roy," the original unpublished Manuscript, containing 163 leaves (paged 1 to 313, with some errors in pagination), including about 230 pages of text descriptive of, and 35 maps, plans and views illustrative of the Ports, Harbours, Anchorages, Towns, Forts, Islands, Volcanoes, etc. along the West Coast of America from the Straits of Magellan northwards to the Gulf of California. The maps and plans are well drawn with pen and ink, and elegantly coloured and shaded in elevation and perspective. Six of the 35 are double page, about 16 by 13 inches, and the remainder single page, about 12 by 7, within the border lines, original vellum (1696), folio (206)

Maggs, £12 5s.

[The author of this extremely valuable and important manuscript was one of the celebrated band of buccaneers under the command of M. de Gennes, whose history is recorded in Froger's "Relation d'un Voyage fait en 1695-97, aux Côtes d'Afrique," etc., Paris, 1698, 12mo. He was shipwrecked in the Straits of Magellan about 1688, and shortly afterwards joined the buccaneering expedition of M. de Beauchesne-Gouin as second in command. This manuscript seems to have been compiled while engaged on this expedition. In addition to the very exact survey of the different harbours and ports, a detailed account is given of the inhabitants of the surrounding country, their manners and customs, etc. The last four pages contain the Route from Acapulco to the Phillipine Islands. The work also contains a long vocabulary of the buccaneer language, estimated by those best able to judge the most valuable work of the kind known. For an interesting account of this MS. see "Les Fuégiens à la fin du XVII^e Siècle d'après des documents Français inédits," by M. G. Marcel, Paris, 1892.—Catalogue.]

[At the end was bound Psalms with Musical Notes, Geneva, 1569.—Catalogue. The Genevan or Breeches version, so called from the rendering of Genesis iii. v. 7, was prepared by William Whittingham and other Nonconformists who took up their residence at Geneva, soon after the death of Edward VIth. The first edition was printed in that City by Rowland Hall, in 1560, 4to., and in the same year the New Testament appeared in 16mo. Though it is without printer's name it came, no doubt, from the press of Rowland Hall. The changes made in the Geneva Bible were the adoption of Roman type and the division of each chapter into verses, and these were probably the chief cause of the popularity of the version of which about 200 editions are known.—ED.]

- 3063 Byron (Lord). Original Manuscript Poem, 1 p. 4to., in Lord Byron's handwriting, "On a Royal Visit to the Vaults" (277) Norbury, £10 5s.

Famed for their civil and domestic quarrels
See heartless Henry lies by headless Charles,
Between them stands another sceptred thing,
It lives, it reigns—"aye, every inch a king,"
Charles to his people—Henry to his Wife,

In him the double tyrant starts to Life,
Justice and Death have mixed their dust in vain,
The royal vampires join and rise again.
What now can tombs avail—since these disgorge
The "blood and dirt" of both to mould a George.

- [This interesting manuscript varies in many ways from the printed version, which was published under the title of "Windsor Poetics." It was given to Mr. Norbury by Mr. Dallas, Lord Byron's friend (not relative), and bears on the wrapper enclosing it: "The Original Impromptu within is in the handwriting of the Noble Author Lord Byron, given to Mr. Norbury by Mr. Dallas his Lordships valued relative." In the Greek quotation from Suetonius, with translation, "Clay kneaded with blood," the Greek words are accented in a manner peculiar to Lord Byron.—Catalogue.]

Vale Press Publications—a Complete Set.

[NOTE.—References to the “Vale Press” will be found in the Christmas number of Bookselling, 1896; the Athenæum of July 23rd, 1898 (in a review of Vaughan’s Poems); and in the Saturday Review of November 11th, 1899. Books issued from this Press have been rising in value for some time, and as this is the first occasion on which a complete set, to date, has been sold by auction, a full report, irrespective of the amount realised in any particular instance, is given for purposes of comparison later on. In many cases the published price has already been doubled at least, e. gr., in the cases of “The Book of Ruth, The Book of Esther” (post No. 3618), which was issued at 15s.; Shakespeare’s “Passionate Pilgrim” (post No. 3619), published at 10s. 6d.; Vaughan’s “Sacred Poems” (post No. 3626), published at 16s.; the “Rowley Poems” of Thomas Chatterton (post No. 3632), published at £1 10s.; and many more. The similarity between the Vale books and those from the Kelmscott Press is, at first sight, most marked. In both cases 15th century models have been largely copied, but the Kelmscott books are essentially specimens of handicraft as distinguished from machine work, which enters very largely into the productions of books coming from the Vale Press. In addition to the articles above mentioned, reference may be made to Ricketts and Pissaro’s “De la Typographie et de l’Harmonie de la page imprimée” (post No. 3631), and “A Defence of the Revival of Printing” (post No. 3640).—ED.]

 ["The Revolt of Islam" is the same poem as "Laon and Cythna," with alterations and a fresh title-page. The reason for the duplicate issue probably is, that a large remainder of "Laon and Cythna" lay on the publisher's (Sherwood's) hands, and that Shelley altered the title and put the work in the hands of C. and J. Ollier, who in 1817 had published the author's "Proposal for Putting Reform to the Vote."—ED.]

 [It may be mentioned that on the 29th March last, at the sale of Mr. Daly's library at New York, a copy of the first folio brought $5,400, or about £1,080. This was stated at the time to be the highest amount hitherto realised for any copy of this scarce book—an obvious error, for in July, 1899, £1,700 was obtained for an annotated copy consigned from abroad. (See BOOK-PRICES CURRENT, vol. xiii., No. 6733.) Only about half-a-dozen perfect copies of the first folio are known to exist, all the others being manifestly incomplete, or else having been repaired or made perfect by additions from other copies. The first appearance at auction of a first folio Shakespeare took place in May, 1687, when a small collection of books belonging to the Coventry family was sold at a dwelling-house in the Haymarket. The price realised on that occasion is not stated, but it must have been quite trifling, for in 1781 a perfect copy sold for no more than £2 4s. 6d. In 1800 the value had risen to £15 15s., and in 1812 to £100, at which price the Roxburghe folio was disposed of.—ED.]

[In this periodical first appeared eight letters by William Makepeace Thackeray, which were afterwards re-edited and published in the "Paris Sketch Book," 2 vol., London, 1840. These letters were, as Thackeray says himself, his "first appearance before an American public." They were addressed to the editor of the "Corsair," and John Camden Hotten, when he reprinted them in London after Thackeray's death, under the title of "The Student's Quarter," substituted the name Bungay to conceal the name of the "foreign journal" whence he drew them. Besides the letters from Paris, there are other contributions by Thackeray, notably an amusing burlesque of Carlyle's style, entitled, "Thomas Carlyle, Esq., to Oliver Yorke, Esq., on the sinking of the Vengeur," which has not been reprinted in book form. For further information respecting this interesting publication, see Beer's Life of Nathaniel Parker Willis, pp. 240-263.—Catalogue.]

THE LIBRARY OF THE LATE COLONEL FRANCIS GRANT.

(No. of Lots, 606 ; amount realised, £2,260 4s. 6d.)

[NOTE.—This Collection will be found to be in many respects of unusual interest. The late owner was specially interested in the authors of the last century, such as Defoe, Pope, Swift, Sterne, Dr. Johnson, of whom he had written a Life (see post No. 5002), Goldsmith, etc. With regard to these and other writers of their period he had a wide and extensive knowledge. He wrote much about them in the periodicals of the day, particularly in the pages of the Athenæum and Notes and Queries. Many of the books in the Collection had MS. notes, written by their late owner, and most of them had one or more of his artistic book-plates, of which he had several varieties.—ED.]

The following items were collected by Mr. H. Halliday Sparling, Secretary of the Kelmscott Press.

- 5230 The Story of the Glittering Plain. The first page set in the golden type and the first ever printed at the Kelmscott Press, with Inscription by William Morris, "the Kelmscott Press, January 31st, 1891, William Morris," and accompanied by Sparling's certificate as to its authenticity. Small oblong sheet of paper containing eight lines set up in Golden type as an example of its effect in combination. Only five different letters were first sent by the founders, and the words here are formed from these five, 8vo. (996)
Temple, £26 10s.

[The "Note" refers to the "Glittering Plain" trial page, but gives the wrong date, January 31st instead of January 1st.—Catalogue.]

- 5231 Shakespeare. The projected Edition of the Tragedies, Histories and Comedies. The only existing page set up in Golden type, double column, in red and black, and containing portion of "Macbeth," Act i., Scenes vii. and viii. (May, 1893), folio (997)
Pearson, £11
- 5232 Froissart. The projected Edition of Lord Berners' translation. Rejected page set up in Troy type, long lines, with Sparling's Inscription to this effect and dated 28/2/93 on reverse. Accepted page in Chaucer type, double column, without heading. Page with corrections in margins by Sparling and his name on reverse, also without heading, together 3 pages, folio (998)
Robson, £11 15s.

[The rejected page is referred to in the "Note," but, according to Sparling's own inscription, the compiler of the list is a month wrong in the date.—Catalogue.]

- 5233 The Recuyell of the Historyes of Troye, by Raoul Lefevre, translated by William Caxton, edited by H. Halliday Sparling, 2 vol., the editor's own copy, with some slight revisions by him, and bound at the end of vol. ii. 56 cancelled pages and 4 leaves printed on vellum, boards, holland backs, 1892, folio (999) Shepherd, £10
- 5234 The History of Reynard the Foxe, by William Caxton, edited by H. Halliday Sparling, the editor's own copy, with a few of his additions in margins and 8 cancelled pages at end, also 4 leaves on vellum, boards, holland back, 1892, folio (1000) Shepherd, £10

- 5276 Boccaccio (G.) Il Decamerone, portrait, frontispieces and culs-de-lampe after Gravelot, Boucher, Cochin and Eisen, engraved by Aliamet, Baquoy, etc., with the "paraphe," 5 vol., old morocco, g. e., Londra (Parigi), 1757, 8vo. (589) Young, £5 10s.
- [It is often stated that the "paraphe" impressed on the back of some of the plates points to the earliest issue; hence, doubtless, the reference to it in the catalogue. The fact is, however, that the French plates invariably bear it, although they are undeniably later impressions than those of the Italian edition (Londra, Parigi), 5 vol., 8vo., 1757. There are several issues of this Italian edition, and at least two of the French edition mentioned, No. 5275 supra, and, speaking generally, the earliest French issue is preferable to any other, even to the earliest Italian. In the first issue (French) the frontispiece of the extra plates (Estampes galantes des Contes du Boccace) is without any inscription, and the 20 plates themselves are without borders. Both Italian and French editions contain portrait, 5 frontispieces, 110 plates and 97 tail-pieces by Aliamet, Baquoy, Flipart and others. The extra plates are not included in this computation.—ED.]

- 5558 Pope (Alexander). Miscellaneous Poems and Translations by several hands, second edition, frontispiece, original calf, Bernard Lintott, 1712-1714, 8vo. (555) Sabin, £8

[This is the first edition with a new title-page added, and the gap between pp. 320 and 353 filled with "Windsor Forest," "The Ode on St. Cecilia's Day," and others by Pope. The volume is interesting, as "The Rape of the Lock" in its original form first appeared here.—Catalogue.]

- 5559 Prior (Matthew). Poems on Several Occasions, first edition, frontispiece by Du Guernier, LARGE PAPER COPY, original calf, Jacob Tonson, 1709, 8vo. (558) Sabin, £13 5s.

[This is the first authorised edition of Prior's Poems. In the preface mention is made of the spurious edition of 1707, which Prior says was published without his knowledge, and contains only imperfect versions of some of his poems, and others ascribed to him that he did not write. The volume is very rare on large paper.—Catalogue.]

- 5560 Psalmes of David, in Prose and Meeter, with the Tunes, and Forme of Discipline and Prayers, with the Common Tunes (wanted title, etc. to the Discipline and Prayers), Edinburgh, J. Bryson, 1640, 8vo. (559) Leighton, £4 4s.

[The binding of this little volume, which measures 4in. by 3in., was of delicate raised silver thread work, with an elaborate design in silk, curious centre-pieces of a rampant horse, set with small pearls (some wanted), corner-pieces also set with pearls (not quite perfect).—Catalogue.]

- 5561 Psalmi. I Sette Salmi Penitentiali, imitati in Rime dall' Excellentiss. Dottore Agostino, e I sette Salmi della Misericordia Latini, Raccolta dal Salmista dal sig. Girolamo Fagiolo, wood engravings to the Calendar and numerous copperplate engravings, good copy, morocco extra, sides tooled in blind and gold, vellum fly leaves, by Simier, uncut, Anvers, 1596, 8vo. (560) Cole, £1 16s.

- 5562 Psalter. The Psalter, or Psalmes of David after the translation of the great Byble, poynted as it shalbe sayde or song in Churches, black letter, woodcut border to title, printer's device at end and ornamental initials, fine copy, morocco extra, g. e., by Rivière, Richarde Juge, 1575, 4to. (730) Lewis, £2 18s.

- 5565 Recueil des meilleurs Contes en Vers, portrait of La Fontaine and the 116 vignettes, 4 vol., old French calf gilt, g. e., Londres (Paris, Cazin), 1778 (563) Quaritch, £4 4s.

- 5566 Restif de la Bretonne (N. E.) Les Contemporaines, nearly 300 plates by Binet and others, 42 vol., half French calf extra, uncut, Leipzig, 1780-85, 12mo. (564) B. F. Stevens, £11

[Two thousand copies were printed, but some of the earlier volumes were reprinted before the completion of the work, and the impressions of the plates in these are inferior.—ED.]

- 5567 Restif de la Bretonne (N. E.) Tableaux de la Bonne Compagnie, 2 vol., plates after Moreau and Freudeberg, morocco super extra, by F. Bedford, Paris, 1787, 16mo. (565)

B. F. Stevens, £8 10s.

[The 16 plates are reduced copies of some of those appearing in Freudeberg and Moreau's "Seconde Suite d'Estampes pour servir a l'histoire des Modes et du Costume en France," folio, 1776.—ED.]

- 5568 Restif de la Bretonne (N. E.) Les Nuits de Paris, 11 vol., old half calf, Londres, 1788-94, 12mo. (566) Cole, £2
[Issued in 16 parts, more usually met with in 8 vol. There are 18 plates after Binet.—ED.]
- 5569 Ruskin (John). The Ethics of the Dust, first edition, original cloth, 1866, 8vo. (569) Sabin, £9 2s. 6d.
[This was a presentation copy, with the inscription: "John Tweddale, with his Cousin, the old Lecturer's affectionate regards, Christmas: 1865.—ED.]
- 5570 St. Lambert. Les Saisons, Poème, illustrated by Choffard and Moreau, morocco extra, gilt leaves, by Cuzin, 1775, 8vo. (800) Newman, £15
[The plates by Moreau were in two states, lettered and proofs before letters. The vignettes by Choffard were also in two states, ordinary impressions and tirées à part.—Catalogue.]
- 5571 St. Lambert. Les Saisons, Poème, 5 plates by Moreau, engraved by Delaunay, Duclos, etc., fleuron on the title and 4 vignettes by Choffard, Holland paper, old French morocco, richly tooled, g. e., 1775, 8vo. (801) Lilburne, £4
- 5572 St. Lambert. Les Saisons, Poème, 4 proof plates by Chaudet, engraved by Morel, vellum paper, old French morocco, richly tooled, g. e., Paris, 1796, 4to. (738) Cole, £3 3s.
- 5573 Savaron (Jean). Traicte de l'Espée Française, par Maistre Jean Savaron, sieur de Villars, Conseiller du Roy, President et Lieutenant General en la Seneschussie d'Auvergne, et Siege Presidial à Clairmont, Paris, 1610, 8vo. (803) Quaritch, £1 12s.
- 5574 Scot (R.) The Discovery of Witchcraft, proving the common opinions of Witches contracting with Devils, Spirits or Familiars and their power to Kill, etc., large copy, unbound, Printed by E. Cotes, sold by T. Williams, 1654, 4to. (884) Pickering, £3 18s.
[The first edition was published in 1584, the second in 1651, and the third in 1665. This is the order usually accepted, but it is evidently incorrect, as no account is taken of the above-named edition of 1654, which the catalogue describes as being "unknown to Bibliographers," though there is a copy of that date in the Huth Library, and another, but imperfect copy, was sold by auction in May, 1893. (See BOOK-PRICES CURRENT, vol. vii., No. 4908).—ED.]

SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE.

A SELECTION FROM A NOBLEMAN'S LIBRARY.

(No. of Lots, 296; amount realised, £1,940 12s.)

[NOTE.—The "Ellis arms" frequently referred to are those of the Right Hon. George Agar Ellis, and the "Dover Arms" those of Lord Dover. De Thou or Thuanus, President of the Paris Parliament in the reign of Henri IV., bound his books in morocco or gilded calf in a style which varied with the different periods of his life. His bachelor's library was embellished with his arms in silver, between two branches of laurel, with his name below. After his marriage, in 1587, his wife's escutcheon is found alongside his own, with the initials J. A. M. below. During his life as a widower, a wreath of twining stems, tipped with red berries and his own and dead wife's initials interlaced, take the place of other ornaments. After his second marriage, in 1603, his new wife's escutcheon appears in conjunction with his own, but the initials are changed to J. A. G. De Thou's library was sold en bloc to the Marquis de Ménars in 1677, and in 1718 to Cardinal de Rohan. In 1789 it was dispersed.—ED.]

[The Marco Polo is the first Latin edition, and the Mandeville a very early one. They are all printed with the same types, and, as the dated piece shows, are from the press of Gerard Leeu at Antwerp. The first leaf to the Mandeville, which consists of Leeu's large device on recto, the reverse being blank, forms Aj of the first signature, and very probably occurs in no other copy.—Catalogue.]

- [An excessively rare and interesting book, attributed in a note in the vol. to the press of the early Oxford printers, Rood and Hunt. The type is very similar to the facsimile leaf of the "Exercitatio Augustini" given by Gordon Duff in his "Early Printed Books." He there says that the only three copies of the "Rolle de Hampole" Book known are all in Cambridge University Library. Another note assigns the volume to the press of Lettou and Machlinia, but it is more likely to be by the Oxford printers. This copy is apparently unknown to all bibliographers, and the first edition of the work mentioned by Lowndes is that of Paris, 1510.—Catalogue.]

- 6931 Shakespeare (William). The Tyrrell Manuscript. A Valuable Collection of Poetry of the Seventeenth Century, together with Culinary and other Recipes, MS. on paper, in the original calf binding, from the Phillipps Collection, 4to. (1170) Sotheran, £45
[This MS. was formerly in the Dering Collection, and is partly in the autograph of Sir James Tyrrell, the Whig Historian of England (born in 1642). There are Basse's famous lines "Vpon poet Shakespeare," beginning "Renowned Spencer lye a thought more nigh"; pieces on Prince Henry and Arabella Stuart, and the famous "Underneath this marble hearse" (verses on the death of the Countess of Pembroke, the mother of Shakespeare's patrons, which are ascribed to Ben Jonson); some pieces signed by W. S., one signed J. M., Corbet's Northern Voyage, Ben Jonson to King James, and his "Drink to me only," upon the death of Beaumont the dramatist; and a large quantity of pieces by Corbet, King and others. It is well known that Basse's verses were first printed in Donne's Poems, 1633, afterwards in Shakespeare's Poems, 1640, and in one or two subsequent publications. Copies, too, exist in manuscript, two of which are printed in Shakespeare's Centurie of Prayse. The Tyrrell Manuscript differs somewhat from all the versions, either printed or manuscript, which can be traced. Basse's lines are here transcribed, and the variations from the Donne copy are italicised. Students can themselves compare the Tyrrell version with the others which are recorded.

VPON POET SHAKESPEARE.

"Renowned Spencer lye a thought more nigh
 To learned Chaucer, and rare Beaumont lye
 A little neerer Spencer, to make roome
 For Shakespeare in your threefold fourefold Tombe.
 To lodge all foure in one bed make a shift
 Untill Doomesday, for hardly will a fift
 Betwixt this day and that by Fate bee slaine,
 For whom the Curtaine may bee drawne againe.
 If your precedency in death doe barr
 A fourth place in your sacred Sepulchre
 Under this carved Marble of thine owne,
 Sleepe brave tragedian Shakespeare, sleepe alone,
Thy unmolested peace, unshared cave
Possese as Lord, not Tenaunt of thy grave,
 [These two lines are omitted in Donne.]
 That unto others, or us it may bee
 Honour hereafter to bee laid by thee."

Ripley, £105
 [A Shakespearian volume of extraordinary rarity and interest. The present is the Radcliffe, Farmer and Bibliotheca Anglo Poetica copy. On the fly-leaf Dr. Farmer had written : "This is the only copy I have yet seen, 1776. Mr. Capel has given one (imperfect?) to Trinity Library amongst his Shakespeariana." At page 143 is "An Epitaph on the death of Maister Arthur Brooke, drowned in passing to New Haven." Brooke was the first translator (from the Italian) of Romeo and Juliet, and Turberville thus refers to his translation :
 "In proufe that he for Myter did excell,
 As may be judged by Juliet and hir mate ;
 For there he shewyde his cunning passing well,
 When he the tale to English did translate."
 So rare is this volume that the British Museum Catalogue (1884) does not record a copy of any edition, perfect or imperfect. One leaf of the table in this copy is in old facsimile. In 1869 the late Mr. Huth acquired a perfect copy at the price of £157 10s. A note concerning this volume in the autograph of George Steevens inserted.—Catalogue. Part of the last leaf was also in facsimile.—ED.]
